Synopsis:

New Blue View is a five-part short film series created by POW Creative Alliance member Liam Gallagher, following fly-fishing guide and conservationist Kyle Schaefer as he travels through the Gulf of Maine, one of the fastest-warming bodies of water on the planet. Part adventure story and part science-driven exploration, the series highlights how anglers, scientists, activists, and communities are adapting to a rapidly changing ocean. Throughout his journey, Kyle uncovers examples of innovation and resilience that reveal what a sustainable future for marine ecosystems could look like. New Blue View connects viewers to the pressing reality of ocean health and the solutions emerging from those who depend on it most.

About The Alliance Member

Liam O. Gallagher considers it a rare privilege to get to do what he does. For the better part of two decades his work as a writer, photographer, editor and filmmaker has allowed him to travel the world documenting local cultures, raw nature and a bunch of really adventurous friends. He's got a thing for good stories. His curiosity often leads the way. He knows to follow it. Whether crafting copy for magazines or producing films and photography for commercial clients Liam is driven to tell better stories with each new gig.
