

Sam & Me

Screening Toolkit

About The Film

Runtime: 31 minutes

Produced by: Anthony Bonello,
Mike Douglas,
Susie Douglas

Directed by: Mike Douglas

Production Company: Switchback Entertainment

Logline

Professional skier and climate activist Mike Douglas mentors a 13 year old boy Sam who's terrified of climate change.

Synopsis

At 13 years old Sam Tierney was in a dark place. His climate anxiety was getting so bad he was having trouble sleeping at night. In an attempt to ease his stress, Sam writes Salomon pro skier and climate advocate, Mike Douglas, asking for advice. Seeing his younger self in Sam, Mike invites him on a weekly ski meetup to talk about climate, skiing, and life.

Film Resources

Official Trailer: <https://protectourwinters.canto.com/b/SVIJO>

Full Film: <https://youtu.be/HGR34-SOIgg?si=ilfNZp7uEmJa6aNy>

Questions: contact clara@protectourwinters.org and donny@protectourwinters.org

Website: <https://protectourwinters.org/grant-project/sam-me/>

About The Alliance Member

Mike Douglas has been called one of the 10 most influential freeskiers of all time. He, along with the members of the New Canadian Air Force, pioneered modern freestyle skiing and developed the first high-performance twin tip ski with Salomon back in 1997. Since then he's won dozens of awards for his skiing, and has more recently added award-winning filmmaker to his resume. His company, Switchback Entertainment, produces documentary adventure films and the web series Salomon TV.

Visit Mike's POW Alliance Profile

@mikedski

